

Marketing Terms Defined

Strategy:

A general long-term course designed to achieve a goal or goals

Marketing:

The process of making potential customers and clients aware of and interested in your products and/or services

Marketing Strategy:

A general long-term course set to create, expand and maintain a collection of customers

Tactics:

The specific things that a company does to follow its strategy and reach its goals